Re: Submission to The Mockingbird Society

This letter, once you have signed and returned one copy to The Mockingbird Society, will become a contract between you and The Mockingbird Society that will establish publication and other rights in your submission, entitled “_____” (Title of Submission). Please read the rest of this letter carefully.

By signing and returning this contract you and The Mockingbird Society are agreeing to the following:

1. As the author of your submission, you retain full ownership of it and may publish it elsewhere or otherwise do what you wish with it without the permission of The Mockingbird Society.
2. You represent and warrant that your submission is your original work and is not copied from or include anyone else’s work.
3. The Mockingbird Society may use your submission for any purpose. You grant to The Mockingbird Society a non-exclusive, perpetual, worldwide, fully-paid up, irrevocable license to reproduce, distribute, publicly perform, publicly display and create derivative works of your submission.
4. The Mockingbird Society may or may not publish your submission, at its sole discretion. While The Mockingbird Society will try to preserve the character of your submission in any publication of your submission, The Mockingbird Society reserves the right to edit your submission as it sees fit.
5. As full consideration for your entering into this contract, The Mockingbird Society will pay you the sum of $20.00 - $25.00. We will mail you a check at the address given below after we receive a signed copy of this letter back from you.

Please sign and date one copy of this letter in the space provided below, and return it to The Mockingbird Society, attention Kara Sanders, at 2100 24th Ave. S, Suite 240, Seattle, WA 98144. You may keep the other copy of this letter for your files. Please feel free to contact me at (206) 407-2134 if you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Kara Sanders
