At The Mockingbird Society, our commitment and passion lie in what we strive to accomplish: building a world-class foster care system. If you share our passion to provide children and youth in the system with the same level of care, support and resources as children from healthy intact families receive, then mark your calendar for October 6, 2010.

Adam Cornell, Deputy Prosecuting Attorney for Snohomish County and alumni of care; along with Mockingbird youth and alumni of care will provide a compelling presentation on the power of advocacy to reform policy and practice, and create a more just system.

Wednesday, October 6, 2010
Sheraton Seattle Hotel
1400 6th Avenue
